

Encounter

Once the soul met the little I.
In the presence of Gods eternal countenance

God father spoke: "Where do you come from?
Now tell me, I love you very much."

The I spoke with a voice so sweet:
"I come out of darkness.
My heart seeks joy, searching for light.
My heart forever wants to love
Tell me, oh Lord, what can I do?
Where will my soul find rest?"

God father to the soul he spoke:
"You'll tell him, where this place is found"

Then, the Soul said to small I:
"I come from heavens light.
In this Kingdom, Joy there is and peace no want and no war there is souls are living hand in hand, unified in happyness."

Then, God the father spoke to I:
"Forget the world and love me.
Do good, Soul, in Earth's Empire
then happy you will always be."
The dark journey has an end
If you will give your heart to God.
If your neighbor you will honor and love
him always dost forgive without desire.
If God's heart is your home,
then happy you will be, don't you forget!
