

About pilgrimage

In most major religions pilgrimage to holy places is considered a religious tradition. So it is in Christianity.

The believer desires nothing but lasting happiness and unity with the divine. Self-awareness, self-knowledge and dedication will help him to progress step by step, eventually accomplishing this lofty goal in his life.

Pilgrimage is a symbol of spiritual search , concentration, asceticism and joy in God's creation. Each one searching for spiritual meaning will find mental and physical food in the loving hand of God. The pilgrim begins the day in love and finishes the day in love, thus reaching the goal of his life, finding wholeness in God's great heart. The joy and confidence to be on a pilgrimage in God-consciousness will create inner and outer satisfaction. Man will recognize that continual happiness is to found in God's loving heart .

In the 'Letter to the Hebrews' we read:

" For we have no permanent city here; on the contrary, we seek the one to come. " (Heb 13:14)

The joint way of pilgrimage is the bundling of the heart's strength and love , a meditative preparation for the big wedding in the heart of God.

Silence, peace and strong commitment to walk the way with God will strengthen the consciousness of wholeness in God.

At the end of his pilgrimage the pilgrim will enjoy the ease, joy and satisfaction to know God in his heart, knowing Him as the eternal, infinite power of love.

May we realize and learn learn this profound meaning of our pilgrimage: to be one with you, our loving Father , forever.

Willibald